

St Joseph's Village

SOUTH TWEED HEADS RETIREMENT COMMUNITY

Stop and smell the sea!

Breathe in the sweet smell of the sea as you enter this immaculate retirement complex of self-contained villas, all with their own little garden and blooming beds.

Here you have it all on your doorstep. Walking distance to great shopping and buses, a 24-hour emergency call system and access to many services and social activities at the adjacent aged care home.

The most beautiful beaches in northern New South Wales are right at your fingers tips, and Queensland's famous Gold Coast is less than an hour away. If you're keen to stay active there's a sports complex around the corner and the Tweed Heads and Coolangatta Golf Club is just down the road. For a sea change this location ticks all the boxes!

For a retirement sea change that can be action packed or just pure relaxation, choose St Joseph's Village. With great ocean and waterside walks, golf course, sports facilities, entertainment and awesome shopping, right on your doorstep, it's got it all!

Make friends and love home

St Joseph's Village is a place where you can be yourself, spend time doing the things you love and enjoy life on your terms. Making new friends is easy in this welcoming community. Join in the activities organised by the onsite aged care home or invite neighbours over for a cuppa and a chat. You can be involved as much or as little as you like. The choice is yours!

Fabulous for visitors

Entertaining visiting friends and family is a sea breeze at St Joseph's. Not only do you have the privacy of your lovely new home to entertain in, you can join in a special on-site event. Alternatively, go for a bite to eat at one of the many cafés and restaurants in the area or take a picnic to Womin Bay Beach. Maybe you'd prefer a game of golf and lunch? You're sure to never be at a loss for things to do!
